Hanahata Park & Oukatei

Hanahata Memorial Garden and Oukatei

The Hanahata Memorial Garden is enclosed by stone walls and traditional earthen fences. The setting, with moats flowing along the south and west sides, evokes the appearance of an old Japanese castle. Inside the garden, visitors can enjoy seasonal flowers, as well as a waterfall, pond, stream, and artificial hill. In addition, the park's gathering facility Oukatei has a cafe, Japanese-style and Western-style rooms with views of the garden, and a tea room with a tea garden, which can be used for multiple purposes.

"Hanahata Memorial Garden Visitor Information"

Opening Hours:
9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.
(Admission to the garden is free)

This is a peaceful garden where visitors can enjoy a stroll around the large pond while taking in the scenery.

*For photography or other special uses, please contact the management office.

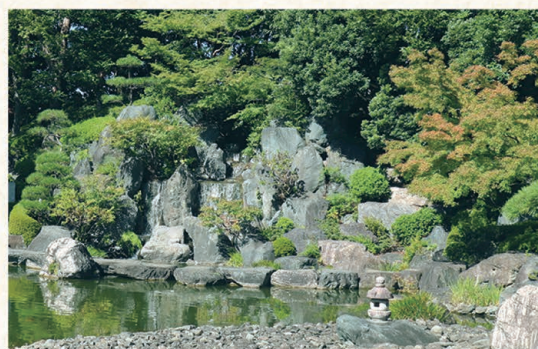

Shibayama Hill

Located near the center of the garden by the pond, this gently sloping grassy hill offers a calm and soothing view of the landscape.

Great Waterfall

This impressive waterfall features stepped stonework made with Sanbaseki rocks, "which are prized as ornamental garden stones. The three-tiered cascade creates a refreshing atmosphere."

Suhama Beach and Misaki Lantern

Suhama Beach, an area paved with stones, represents the shoreline. Together with the Misaki Lantern, which evokes the image of a lighthouse, the scene creates a coastal landscape within the garden.
